

Dear Michael Powell and associates,

I do not at all approve of your move to lift the cross-ownership ban. How can we be assured of receiving broad coverage as well as different perspectives in the news if the agencies in a geographical area are owned by one corporation? Please consider that it is not in the best interest of the public.

Thank you,

Andrew Elliott